

Fab Lab Ajaccio Privacy and Terms of Use

The following notices and licenses comprise together the FLA Open Course Ware License.

Privacy

Fab Lab Ajaccio (FLA) respects your privacy. We do not collect personally identifiable information about you unless you voluntarily provide it, such as when you provide email contact information to subscribe to the FLA newsletter, send feedback to FLA, or respond to a survey. If you voluntarily provide your email address or other contact information, we might also use it to inform you of changes to FLA, to survey you about your use or opinion of FLA, or to ask for your support. At your request, we will remove your contact information from our files.

We do not make your contact information or any other personally identifiable information available to anyone outside FLA or its service providers (who use the information only for authorized FLA purposes) unless we are legally required to do so.

In addition to the above, we collect certain anonymous (non-personally identifiable) information to help us improve the FLA web site and to evaluate the access and use of FLA materials and the impact of FLA on the worldwide educational community:

- We collect information you provide about your use of and satisfaction with FLA through email you send us, through the FLA feedback form, and through FLA surveys, whether or not you voluntarily include your contact information.
- We may use web analysis tools that are built into the FLA website to measure and collect anonymous session information.
- We also use "cookies" to improve your FLA web experience and to collect anonymous information about how you use FLA. However, cookies are not required for FLA use. If your browser is configured not to accept cookies, you will still be able to access FLA and its content.

When we report information about FLA access, use, and impact, we report aggregate, non-personally identifiable data. Occasionally, we report quoted feedback from users. We do not attribute feedback to specific individuals unless we obtain permission to use that person's name along with the feedback

The licensor cannot revoke these freedoms as long as you follow the license terms.

Under the following terms:

Attribution — You must give appropriate credit, provide a link to the license, and indicate if changes were made. You may do so in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the licensor endorses you or your use.

Noncommercial — You may not use the material for commercial purposes.

Share Alike — If you remix, transform, or build upon the material, you must distribute your contributions under the same license as the original.

No additional restrictions — You may not apply legal terms or technological measures that legally restrict others from doing anything the license permits.

Notices:

You do not have to comply with the license for elements of the material in the public domain or where your use is permitted by an applicable exception or limitation.

No warranties are given. The license may not give you all of the permissions necessary for your intended use. For example, other rights such as publicity, privacy, or moral rights may limit how you use the material.

Use of FLA Name

"FLA", "Fab Lab Ajaccio", and its logos and seal are trademarks of the Fab Lab Ajaccio. Except for purposes of attribution as required by our Creative Commons License, you may not use FLA's names or logos, or any variations thereof, without prior written consent of FLA. You may not use the FLA name in any of its forms nor FLA seals or logos for promotional purposes, or in any way that deliberately or inadvertently claims, suggests, or in FLA's sole judgment gives the appearance or impression of a relationship with or endorsement by FLA.

FLA Interpretation of "Non-commercial"

Non-commercial use means that users may not sell, profit from, or commercialize FLA materials or works derived from them. The guidelines below are intended to help users determine whether or not their use of FLA materials would be permitted by FLA under the "non-commercial" restriction. Note that there are additional requirements (attribution and share alike) spelled out in our license.

1. Commercialization is prohibited. Users may not directly sell or profit from FLA materials or from works derived from FLA materials.
2. Example: A commercial education or training business may not offer courses based on FLA materials if students pay a fee for those courses and the business intends to profit as a result.
3. Determination of commercial vs. non-commercial purpose is based on the use, not the user. Materials may be used by individuals, institutions, governments, corporations, or other business whether for-profit or non-profit so long as the use itself is not a commercialization of the materials or a use that is directly intended to generate sales or profit.
4. Example: A corporation may use FLA materials for internal professional development and training purposes.
5. Incidental charges to recover reasonable reproduction costs may be permitted. Recovery of nominal actual costs for copying small amounts (under 1000 copies) of FLA content on paper or CDs is allowed for educational purposes so long as there is no profit motive and so long as the intended use of the copies is in compliance with all license terms. Students must be informed that the materials are freely available on the FLA Web site and that their purchase of copied materials is optional.
6. Example: An institution in a remote area has limited Internet access and limited network infrastructure on campus, and a professor offers to create CDs of FLA materials relevant to her course. The professor may recover the costs of creating the CDs.
